STUDENTS GRIEVANCES REDRESSAL COMMITTEE

In accordance with the University Grants Commission (UGC) (Redress of Grievances of Students) Regulations, 2019, and to ensure a transparent, fair, and responsive mechanism for addressing grievances, CK College of Engineering and Technology has constituted the Students' Grievance Redressal Committee (SGRC).

The SGRC is established to address and resolve complaints and concerns raised by students in a timely and effective manner, ensuring a positive and productive campus environment.

Objectives of the SGRC:

- To provide an accessible platform for students to voice their grievances.
- To investigate and address issues in a fair and transparent manner.
- To recommend measures to prevent similar grievances in the future.

Scope of Grievances:

Students may approach the SGRC for grievances related to:

1. Academic matters (e.g., assessment, attendance, learning resources).
2. Financial matters (e.g., scholarships, fee-related issues).
3. Administrative issues (e.g., infrastructure, amenities).
4. Harassment or discrimination of any kind.
5. Other concerns affecting students' rights and well-being.

AVSEC - Salem

Reporting Mechanism:

Students are encouraged to submit their grievances in writing or via email to the SGRC at principal@avsecmail.in. The complaint must include the student's full name, course, contact information, and a detailed description of the issue. All grievances will be reviewed promptly, and appropriate actions will be taken in compliance with institutional policies and UGC guidelines.
